IMPACT 2024

Israel at heart  ישראל בלב

The Israeli-American Council (IAC) is a national community-based organization. By building an engaged and united Israeli-American community, we work every day to deepen the Jewish and Israeli identity of our next generation, empower the American Jewish community, and strengthen the bond between the United States and the State of Israel. And we fight the scourge of antisemitism using the most powerful weapon – a strong and engaged community that has Israel at heart.

LETTER FROM THE CEO

Shalom Dear Community Members and Friends!

When my friend, Shoham Nicolet, bequeathed to me the privilege of leading one of the Jewish world's most impactful organizations, I did not imagine how much more important our work was about to become. My first day on the job was October 2. On my fifth day, our world came apart.

Only an organization built around a coast-to-coast community such as ours - a community as loving and vibrant as it is resilient and determined - could have brought so many together to make such a difference during so dark a time in Jewish history.

We poured into the streets and squares of America - hundreds of thousands of us - to cry out in rage and demand justice. We held shiva and shloshim vigils that brought tears to the eyes of those attending or streaming. We doubled down on our programs to combat antisemitism, sending our great staff around the country to fight Jew-hatred in schools and to train teachers - thousands of teachers - on antisemitism. We enhanced our programs for kids, because we know that proud and committed young Jews is both an end in itself and a prerequisite for defeating our enemies. We even worked with legislators in multiple states to pass game-changing laws on antisemitism. And in everything we did, we showed that our Israeli spirit- combining pride, love, and chutzpah - can transform Jewish life in the diaspora.

This IMPACT 2024 is a retrospective of our remarkable achievements this past year. We should be proud of what we accomplished together, but make no mistake: our gaze is fixed firmly on the future. These are perilous times for our people, and we cannot know what challenges await us. But whatever those challenges may be, the solutions undoubtedly will lie in our community, our unity, and our tireless determination to win.

With God's help and your support, may we make an even greater impact this coming year. And may we build together that better, safer, more decent future that our children and grandchildren so richly deserve.

Yours, with deepest gratitude,

Elan S. Carr

GVANIM ALUMNI LEAD COMMUNITY INITIATIVES IN SUPPORT OF ISRAEL

EMPTY SHABBAT TABLES HONORING OUR HOSTAGES AND AWAITING THEIR RETURN HOME

“ One of the events that I remember that we organized together was the empty Shabbat table. I hadn’t smiled since Oct. 7th and this was three weeks after that horrific event in Israel. I met a security guard, we were there all day together working, and he looked at me and said, “I feel there is something going on with you right now and I need to understand how you feel.” I explained to him that I feel that there is a little flame in my heart that I hold, and I’m determined not to dim this light for all of humanity. He looked at me, smiled and said, “you’re in the right place.” He took out his phone and shared his website with me. The whole website focused on showing that the light is much stronger than any darkness shown in the world. That was the first time I had smiled in three weeks. I am forever grateful for IAC. This organization brings people together. I helped to organize so many events, thanks to my time in Gvanim which helped us think outside the box. You can create so many things for the community! You will determine and feel the power of love, only when you begin to give to others. ”

Felicia

" These types of presentations are needed in our school district (and world). We need to provide a safe learning space for our Jewish students."

INSTILLING A STRONG JEWISH IDENTITY IN OUR CHILDREN

“From the first moment we got here we knew we had to be involved and be a part of the community for our daughters.

Amit, my husband, joined the Keshet committee already in the first year. Other than the fact that it helped our girls feel safer going the first few times, it brought us closer to the community. We found a warm and loving home not only for the girls but for all of us as a family. As an Israeli mother living here in the United States, there is always the fear of how we will be able to preserve Hebrew, how I will be able to pass on to my daughters some of what my Israeli childhood had to offer and it's hard - it's daily work.

Even if it's not always convenient for us to join on Sundays, we do not give up! And the girls? Well, they always come back from Keshet with a smile - and it's all worth it!

I see the confidence it gives them and the sense of belonging that we sometimes miss here. I see how important it is to be a part of a community - if we do not do it for our children no one will do it. Through this we teach the girls an important lesson about giving, helping the community and mutual responsibility and this no lesson will be able to teach. Keshet is so much more than a weekly program for our girls, Keshet is a home, it's a family and for that we are grateful! ”

CIVIC ENGAGEMENT AND FIGHTING ANTISEMITISM

THE ESCAPE ROOM IS AN IMMERSIVE EXPERIENCE THAT TEACHES THE BASICS OF ANTISEMITISM SUCH AS TACTICS ON HOW TO RECOGNIZE IT AND PRODUCTIVE WAYS TO COUNTER IT.

ENGAGED 5,632 COLLEGE STUDENTS, EDUCATORS, AND COMMUNITY MEMBERS FROM COAST-TO-COAST

91% FOUND IT AN EFFECTIVE WAY TO LEARN ABOUT ANTISEMITISM

72% FELT EMPOWERED TO DO MORE/GET INVOLVED

POST-EVENT SURVEYS WERE COMPLETED BY MANY PARTICIPANTS, OFFERING VALUABLE FEEDBACK ON THEIR EXPERIENCES.

87% SAID THEY LEARNED SOMETHING NEW

“ I was hesitant to participate in the Escape Room because I knew it was about combating antisemitism and Israel hatred, and that made me anxious. But the concept made it really fun, and I learned a ton of things I can use to advocate. ”

Liah, High School Freshman

ACTATHON

OVER 100 STUDENTS WERE TASKED WITH THE FOLLOWING PROBLEM: HOW CAN YOU COMBAT ANTISEMITISM IN SPORTS, USING THE POWER OF SOCIAL MEDIA?

“ Hopefully with all of us trying to bring together the different traits and aspects we learned today back to our schools and back to our temples and all of our communities to try and promote all of these ideas that we are learning here. ”

Shiran, New England

“ The reason why I wanted to come (to the Actathon) was just because the biggest thing I hear is, ‘just go on social media and post and repost’ all that. But doing things where you actually get to sit down with teens and talk about things that everyone else is also struggling with or dealing with; it’s awesome! As teenagers, we know social media really well, so here we can come together and come up with many creative ideas on how we can help. ”

Michaëlle, New England

THE POWER OF PHILANTHROPY

MORE THAN 5,000 DONATIONS POURED IN AS A RESPONSE TO THE WAR, FUELING A POWERFUL WAVE OF SUPPORT AGAINST RISING ANTISEMITISM AND HELPING STUDENTS BOTH ON AND OFF CAMPUS. FROM COAST TO COAST, SUPPORTERS UNITED, SEEKING TO STAND TOGETHER IN SOLIDARITY AND STRENGTH.

“When Naty Saidoff said, ‘Our soldiers give their blood, it’s time for us to give with ink,’ it struck a deep chord in me. Hearing the students speak, I knew that now is the moment to stand behind the extraordinary work of IAC and make a lasting impact.”
